

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

Foreword		i
Prologue		v
Introduction:	The Dynamic Background: Its Chiasmic Structure	1
Part One:	The Practices of a ‘Social Poetics’	23
1	Making Sense on the Boundaries: On Moving Between Philosophy and Psychotherapy	25
2	‘Living Moments’ in Dialogical Exchanges	43
3	Social Construction as Social Poetics: Oliver Sacks and the Case of Dr. P	57
Part Two:	The Chiasmic-Dialogical Structure of our ‘Inner Lives’	75
4	Life Inside Dialogically Structured Mentalities: Bakhtin’s and Voloshinov’s Account of Our Mental Activities as Out in the World Between Us	77
5	In the Moment of Speaking We Cannot Simply be Ourselves	99
Part Three:	The Influence of Other’s ‘Voices’ Within Ourselves	131
6	On Being ‘Moved’ by the Embodied ‘Voice’ of an Other	133
7	Acknowledging Unique Others: Ethics, “Expressive Realism,” and Social Constructionism	157
Part Four:	Dialogical Dynamics in Speaking and Writing: Witness-Thinking	179
8	Dialogical Dynamics: Inside the Moment of Speaking	181
9	Writing from within “Living Moments”	195
Epilogue	The Search for a Poised Resourcefulness Within the Midst of Complexity	215
References		225
Subject Index		233
Name Index		239