

Table of Contents

Chapter	Page
Abstract	viii
Chapter One: Setting the Stage for Inquiry	1
The Problem	1
Opportunities for Collaboration	3
Behavioral Health and Primary Care Medicine	3
Collaboration within the therapeutic relationship	6
Collaboration with colleagues	7
Collaboration Across Disciplines	10
The Danger of a Single Lens	13
Chet and Sally: A narrow perspective hurts, not helps	16
My professional journey	18
Paula: exploring the root of her pain	22
Chapter Two: Social Constructionist Theory	26
Basic Principles of Social Constructionism	27
Examining taken-for-granted assumptions	28
Relational Processes and Realities	28
The Ways We Use Language	28
Dialogue	35
Hiding as Dialogue	38
Internal Dialogue	39
Rod's Story	40
Discourse	41
Melody's Story	45
Questioning Objectivity	47
Power	49
Resistance	52
Knowledge	54
Knowledge Creation in Medicine	55
Knowledge Creation in CAM	57
Knowledge Creation in Psychotherapy	58
Pharmaceutical Companies and Knowledge	61

Reflexivity	65
Radical Reflexivity	66
Contemporary Social Constructionism	67
Chapter Three: Learning from Others (Lit Review)	71
Identifying a gap in the research	71
Pioneers	72
Interprofessional Education (IPE)	78
IPE Today	78
Attempting to Define Collaboration	79
What Collaboration Is Not	80
Forced Collaboration	81
Collaboration Without Compensation	82
What Collaboration Is	83
Ingredients for Collaboration	85
Factors Affecting Collaboration	90
Cultural Aspects of Disciplines	92
Research Questions Clarified	98
Chapter Four: Methods	101
Logical Positivism	102
Evidence-Based Medicine	103
EBM and Policy	105
Towards a New Epistemology	115
Research Agenda	116
Grounded Theory	118
The Setting	120
The Founder and Practice History	121
The Providers	124
Recruitment	126
The Pilot Meeting Plan	128
The Case	135
Approach to Data Collection	136
The Fourth Meeting	137
The Recap Meeting	139

Chapter Five: Results.....	140
Professional Narratives	141
Results of Pilot Meeting	146
Feedback	153
Recap Meeting	154
Discussion with Leadership Team	156
Chapter Six: Discussion	161
Radical Reflexivity	161
Reflexivity: The Interviews	161
Additional Lessons
Organizational Change	170
Reflexivity in Groups	173
A Theory Emerges	174
Chapter Seven: Research Agenda and Technology.....	178
Dialogue	179
Markers	179
Practice Based Evidence	181
Utilizing Technology to Facilitate Collaboration	183
Limitations	189
Epilogue	191
Appendices.....	195
One: General Invitation	195
Two: Reflecting Team Correspondence	195
Three: Tips for Dialogue	196
Four: Correspondence from client	197
Five: Reminder email	198
Six: Excerpts from Reflecting Team during pilot meeting	199
Seven: Correspondence after pilot meeting.	200
Eight: Correspondence before second meeting.	201
Nine: Correspondence after second meeting	202
10: Sample Collaborative Summary	203
11: Correspondence after third meeting	204
12: Correspondence after fourth meeting	205
13: Correspondence after fifth meeting	206
14: Correspondence after sixth meeting	207

Appendices, continued

15: Excerpts from fourth Meeting	208
16: Questionnaire given to small group	209
17: Results Shared with Leadership Team	210
18: Results of Questionnaires	211
19: Excerpts from Recap Meeting	212
20: Consent form	213
Bibliography	214