

Table of Contents

Preface	11
Who is this Book For?.....	13
Why Bereavement Groups?.....	14
The Origins of “Remembering Groups”	15
How to Use This Book.....	16
Acknowledgments.....	16
Chapter 1 – What This Book Offers	19
An Overview of the Text	22
Upcoming Chapters.....	23
Chapter 2 – Assumptions of Grief Psychology	25
What is Problematic about Conventional Grief Psychology?	25
The Pathologizing of Grief.....	26
Challenges to Conventional Assumptions and Practices	37
Summary Focus.....	40
Chapter 3 – Group Logistics	41
Considerations for a Successful Group	42
Facilitators	42
Structuring the Groups	43
Recruitment	46
Screening.....	48
Informed Consent.....	49
Summary Focus.....	52
Chapter 4 – Week One: Re-establishing Relationship	53
What Typically Happens During the First Session.....	54
“Introduce Me to Your Loved One” Activity	56
Why Start With this Kind of Introduction?	57
Benefits of Introductions	59
Things to be Aware of as a Facilitator.....	60
By Way of an Introduction... An Example	62
Journaling Exercise	63
Summary Focus.....	66
Chapter 5 – Week Two: Unpacking the Language of Grief	67
Activities During the Second Meeting	68
Rationale Behind the Second Week	71
The Effect of Group Conversations.....	73
Journaling Exercise	75
Summary Focus.....	77

Chapter 6 – Week Three: Stories of Strength.....79
 Preparation for the Third Week 80
 Locating Strength 81
 Rationale Behind Week Three 83
 Benefits of Discovery 87
 Journaling Exercise 89
 Summary Focus 91

Chapter 7 – Week Four: Finding the Voice of the Deceased93
 Subjunctive Verbs in Remembering Conversations 94
 The Typical Week Four Session 96
 The Impact of Subjunctive Questions 97
 Journaling Exercise 100
 The Effect of Journaling Exercises 101
 Summary Focus 104

Chapter 8 – Week Five: Stories of Strength105
 Confronting Challenges 109
 What to Internalize 110
 Example of Internalizing Useful Voices 112
 Journaling Exercise 116
 Summary Focus 118

Chapter 9 – Week Six: Expanding the Club..... 119
 Who Shares Your Stories? 119
 Group Reflections 122
 The Power of an Audience 123
 Taking the Dead to a Larger Audience 124
 Journaling Exercise 127
 Summary Focus 128

Chapter 10 – Transport129
 Evaluating the Group Process 129
 Changes for Group Members 131
 Follow-up Survey 131
 Personal Transport 132
 Transport as Prevention 135
 An Invitation 135

Glossary139
Resources143
References145
About the Author149