

STORIES OF MIGRATION:

From Here to There and Back ...

and the Stuff In-between, by Margot Brink

TABLE OF CONTENTS

"Smile, breathe and go slowly."

— Thich Nhat Hanh

(Understanding Our Mind: 50 verses on Buddhist Psychology)

before...	1
------------------	----------

CHAPTER ONE – HOPES, DREAMS AND DESIRES	8
--	----------

A. INTRODUCTION	8
B. ANSWERING THE 'SO WHAT – WHO CARES?' QUESTIONS	11
1. Introductory aspects, importance and limitations of the study	11
2. What I hope to learn	14
3. Addressing Social Constructionist ideas	14
4. Literary Inquiry	15
5. Organisation of the Inquiry	15
6. Rationale supporting the inquiry, methodology and ethical issues	16
7. Applicability of the work	17
8. Accessibility to the work	18
C. CONCLUSION	18

CHAPTER TWO - POSTMODERN AND FEMINIST THINKING	19
---	-----------

A. INTRODUCTION	19
B. POSTSTRUCTURALISM AND POSTMODERNISM	19
1. Different strokes for different folks?	19
1.1. A Very Brief Look at Poststructuralism	19
1.2. Poststructuralism and Postmodernism – Comrades in Arms?	20

2.	Postmodernism	22
2.1.	The Main Interceptors of the Postmodern Discourse	22
2.1.1.	Focusing on Michel Foucault, Power, Knowledge and Patriarchy	22
2.1.2.	Patriarchy	24
2.2.	Focusing on Jacques Derrida and Deconstruction	26
2.3.	Focusing on Feminism	28
C.	CONCLUSION	30

CHAPTER THREE - SOCIAL CONSTRUCTION 31

A.	INTRODUCTION	31
B.	SOCIAL CONSTRUCTION	32
1.	A Concise Consideration of Various Contributors to the Historical Development of Social Construction Thinking	33
	• Giovanni (Giambattista) Vico (1668 – 1774)	33
	• Edmund Husserl (1859 – 1938)	33
	• Alfred Schutz (1899 – 1959)	34
	• Maurice Merleau-Ponty (1908 – 1961)	34
	• Martin Heidegger (1889 – 1976)	35
	• Hans-Georg Gadamer (1900 – 2002)	35
	• Mikhail Bakhtin (1895 – 1975)	36
	• Lev Vygotsky (1896 – 1934)	36
	• Ludwig Wittgenstein (1889 – 1951)	37
	• Gregory Bateson (1904 – 1980)	38
	• Thomas Kuhn (1922 – 1996)	39
2.	The Social Construction Journey	40

2.1. Language	40
2.2. Ultimate Truths	40
2.3. Discourse	40
2.4. Stories	41
2.5. Meaning(-making) and Meaning and Language	42
2.6. Reflection and Reflexivity	43
2.7. Our Worlds are Socially Constructed	44
C. SOME CRITICISMS - RADICAL PLURALISM, INDIVIDUALISM and NIHILISM	44
1. Radical Pluralism	44
2. Individualism	45
3. Nihilism	47
D. CONCLUSION	49

CHAPTER FOUR - CULTURE, MIGRATION AND IDENTITY 51

A. INTRODUCTION	51
B. CULTURE	51
1. Culture as Non-Bounded Entities	52
2. Meaning-Making in Culture	53
3. Inquiring into Culture	53
4. Cultural Belonging	54
5. Cultural Components	55
6. Rites of Passage	55
7. What Constitutes Culture?	56
8. Culture and Feminism	58
9. Cultural Intolerance	58
10. Cultural Assimilation and Integration	59

11. Culture - Summary	59
C. MIGRATION	61
1. Migration : A Positioning	61
2. Migration Categories	62
3. Theories of Migration	64
4. Definitions of Migration	65
5. Contextual Aspects of Migration	65
6. Migration, Transnationalism and Globalisation	66
7. Pros and Cons of Migration	68
8. Migration - A Summary	68
D. IDENTITY	69
1. Identity: A Positioning	69
2. Cultural Identity	69
3. Identity and Place	70
4. The Importance of Identity, Belonging and Temporality	71
5. Identity and Meaning-Making	72
6. Identity - A Summary	73
E. CONCLUSION	73

CHAPTER FIVE - THE HOW - METHODOLOGICAL CONSIDERATIONS 75

A. INTRODUCTION	75
B. QUALITATIVE INQUIRY IN GENERAL	77
C. SPECIFICS OF THIS INQUIRY	79
1. Background to the Inquiry	79
2. Moment of Insertion	81
3. Aims of the Inquiry	83

4.	Inquiry Methodology	84
4.1.	Feminist Inquiry	84
4.2.	Auto (Relational) Ethnography	86
4.3.	Narrative Inquiry	91
5.	Inquiry Process	93
5.1.	Participants and Story Collecting	93
5.2.	Cultural Considerations	95
6.	Inquiry Procedures	96
7.	Exploring the Stories	97
8.	Inquiry Narrative	98
9.	Ethical Considerations: Transparency, Reflexivity, Accountability	98
9.1.	Introduction	98
9.2..	Ethical Considerations in General	100
9.2.1.	Transparency	101
9.2.2.	Reflexivity	102
9.2.3.	Accountability	102
D.	CONCLUSION	103

CHAPTER SIX - CONVERSATIONS 104

A.	INTRODUCTION	104
B.	COLLATED CONVERSATIONS	107
A.	MIGRATION questions	107
B.	CULTURE questions	121
C.	IDENTITY questions	130
D.	FINALLY questions	141
C.	CONCLUSION	143

CHAPTER SEVEN - CONCLUSIONS	147
A. INTRODUCTION	147
B. LAUREL RICHARDSON'S VALUATIVE CRITERIA	149
1. Substantive Criteria	149
2. Aesthetic Criteria	151
3. Reflexivity	151
4. Impact	152
C. MARGOT'S VALUATION	152
D. DEFINITIONS	153
1. Culture	153
2. Migration	153
3. Identity	153
E. FUTURE RESEARCH TOPICS	154
F. REFLECTING ON THE AIMS OF THE INQUIRY	154
G. CONCLUSION	155
after...	157
LIST OF SOURCES	169
APPENDICES
APPENDIX ONE	180
• Covering e-mail to Story Guides	181
APPENDIX TWO	182
• The Story Guide - Incomplete	183

• The Story Guides - Complete
✓ Margot	187
✓ Danielle, Gabriella and Gita	197
✓ Gabriella : Additional	211
✓ Coenie	217
✓ Alina	231
✓ Kon	234
✓ Heike	239
✓ Stella	244
✓ Penny	252
✓ Phenyoy	256
✓ Jesse	260
✓ Kate	270

TABLE and FIGURES

Table 1	Summary of the IOM's 2010 Statistics on Migration	12
Fig.1	From Veronica Lawler (1995:32-33), I was dreaming to come to America. Memories from the Ellis Island Oral History Project.	61
Fig. 2	Categories of Migration	63
Fig. 3	Original Scaffolding of Research Methodology Components (Crotty 2010:9)	75
Fig. 4	Descriptions of Scaffolded Components	76
Fig. 5	Extended Scaffolding of Inquiry Choices	76
Fig. 6	Dynamics Among Data Collection, Management and Collection (Chang 2008:122)	97
Fig. 7	'Migration'	143