

Contents

Dedication	6
Prologue	7
Chapter One: Introduction	12
Chapter Two: The Theoretical Orientation	22
Social Construction	22
Implications of A Constructionist View for Medical Malpractice	27
Dialogue	35
The Use of Dialogue To Build
Community Around Responses to Medical Error	46
Appreciative Inquiry	48
Chapter Three: Law as A Healing Profession	61
Healing	62
A Calling	75
Servant Lawyership	81
Chapter Four: Medical Error, Litigation, the In Between and Collaborative Law	83
Medical Error and Litigation Practices	88
Legal and Medical Cultures	90
Communication, Including Disclosure and Apology, When Appropriate	95
Resistance to Disclosure	105
Medical Error and Medical Malpractice Litigation	111
Background	111
The Traditional Process: Medical Malpractice Litigation	111
Who/What Are Blamed	120
- Attorneys and, by implication, their clients	120
- Insurers and their Insured physician	124
- Liability of individual physicians versus
organizations/systems/hospitals	126
Prevention vs Punishment	130
Patient Safety	131
The In Between Programs	134
A punitive measure	150
Collaborative Law	151
Challenges Facing Collaborative Law	172

Chapter Five: Research Method 174
Dialogue 174

Chapter Six: The Dialogues 181
Questions for Dialogue 182
Preparation of participants 185
Summary of Key Points from Dialogues 186
Respect for each other and the process 187
Respectful Listening 187
People Letting Go of Assumptions and Stereotypes 187
Dialogic Moments 189
Stories of Healing 191
Moments When All the Participants Came Together 192
Pitfalls of Litigation 193
How/Why This Process Will Work 194

Chapter Seven: Next Steps And Areas
For Further Conversations/Dialogue 196

Appendix One 202
Transcript of San Diego Dialogue

Appendix Two 213
Transcript of Florida Dialogue

References 220