Table of Contents

Each chapter and sub-section is hyperlinked. Simply press the "control" key and left click the mouse/touchpad to go directly to that section.

Acknowledgements

Chapter 1 INTRODUCTION……..Page 7

The Story of Juna: Re-constructing Childhood Trauma: "It's not the soul of your life"
The Orientation of this Dissertation
Rationale for this Research: What difference could re-constructing trauma make?
The Research Questions and Outline of Dissertation Chapters

Chapter 2 SOCIAL CONSTRUCTION……Page 12

Social Construction
Orienting Principles
Criticisms of Social Construction and Counter Arguments
Language and Terms. What do words mean anyway?
Summary of the Terms Used in the Dominant Discourse Vs Post-Modern Concepts of Trauma

Chapter 3 THE CONSTRUCTION AND DOMINANT DISCOURSE OF TRAUMA: MAINSTREAM LITERATURE AND EXPERIENCES……Page 30

Definitions of and Impairments in Childhood Development from Trauma
The ACES (Adverse Childhood Experiences Study): More impairments from childhood trauma
The Binary Position of Blame
The Stigma of Mental Health
The Social Construction of Mental Illness
The Social Construction of Trauma: A Literature and Media Review

Chapter 4 OTHER VOICES IN TRAUMA DISCOURSE……Page 53

The Trauma Informed Approach
Trauma Informed Systems of Care
Posttraumatic growth and Resilience: The Evolution Continues
Resilience
Culture and the Construction of Trauma

Chapter 5 NARRATIVES, IDENTITY AND TRAUMA……..Page 63

The Power of Stories
Contextual Dimensions in How Stories are Told
The Risks and Benefits of Telling a Trauma Story
Narrative Therapy

Chapter 6 COLLECTIVE STORY TELLING, CULTURE AND COMMUNITIES……Page 79

Public Testimony and Stories of Trauma
Community Story Telling and Healing
The Power of Connection and Empathy in Creating Space for Growth
A Collective Response to Trauma in the Western World

Chapter 7 THE RESEARCH PROCESS IN ACTION……..Page 99

The Research Question
The Role of the Researcher in Research
Research Method: A Listener's Guide
How to Use the Listener's Guide
Research Decisions and Description of Methods Used
First Interviews
Second Interviews
Third Interviews
Focus Groups
Focus Group with Community Members #1
Invitation and Forum Process
Focus Group with Community Members #2
Focus Group with Practitioners at a Trauma Conference
Structure and Format of the Practitioners Focus Group
Research Methods Summary: Diagram

Chapter 8 EMILY'S STORY (INTERVIEW # 1)……Page 119
Emily's Story from her Perspective
The Analysis Paralysis
The Researcher's Participation in the Story
I-Poem for Emily
Voices in the Story of Emily –The Minimizer Voice
-The Wise Voice

-The Resistant Voice
-The Pleaser Voice
-The Victim Voice
-The Resilient Voice

Chapter 9 LANDON'S STORY (INTERVIEW # 1)…….Page 143
Landon's Story from his Perspective
Role of the Researcher in the Interview
I-Poem for Landon
Voices in the Story of Landon -The Victim Voice
-The Resistant Voice
-The Resilient Voice
The Focus on the Victim, Resistant and Resilient Voices-Victim Voices
-Resistant Voices
-Resilient Voices
Second Interviews and Reflections and Next Steps

Chapter 10 THE GENERATION OF THE STORY SHIFTER FRAMEWORK……..Page 160

Introduction to the Concept of Story Shifters
What is a Story Shifter? Shape Shifters and Story Shifters
The Dimensions of Discursive Context and their Story Shifters
Discursive Context
The Story Shifters:
The Discursive Context Dimension of Relational Activity
A Stance of Not Knowing
The Nature of the Relationship and the Establishment of Safety and Trust
Meaning of Response While Telling the Story
A Shared Experience
The Discursive Context Dimension of Culture and Linguistics
Knowledge Generation as a Story Shifter
Media as a Story Shifter
Social Constructs as a Story Shifter
Language as a Story Shifter
Summary
Diagram Figure of the Story Shifter Theoretical Framework

Chapter 11 THE MEANING STORY SHIFTERS MIGHT HOLD FOR OTHERS……Page 203

Feedback on the Story Shifter Framework from Individuals and a Family (who were not part of a focus group)
Conversations Summaries from the Community Focus Group #1
Individual Feedback from the Community Forum #1 on the Story Shifter Framework
Conversations Summaries from the Community Focus Group #2
Feedback from the Practitioners Focus Group at a Trauma Conference
Final Interview with Landon and Emily
    Reflections from Landon
    Reflections from Emily
Summary of Focus Groups

Chapter 12 POSSIBILITIES FOR THE FUTURE……..Page 221

Considerations for Applying the Story Shifter Framework to Other Settings
    Education
    Other Fields in Mental Health
    Other Professions
    Therapeutic Setting
    Community Setting
    In Other Cultures
Limitations of the Story Shifter Framework
Resources: A Tool for Consideration
    Resilient and Growth Rating Scale
Future Research and Opportunities
In Summary

References……Page 233

Appendices……Page 252

Addendum #1 Additional Information: Harry Potter and Boggarts.....Page 258

Addendum #2 Additional Information: Discursive Context