

Table of Contents

Dedication	6
Acknowledgment	7
Abstract	8
Introduction	9
Methodology	11
Introduction to the social construction discourse	11
Positioning within the discourse	12
Focus on relationships	14
The role of dialogue.....	14
Social poetics as a research practice.....	15
Terminology: An unfolding inquiry versus research.....	16
Future-forming possibilities and generativity.....	16
Relational research approach and methods	18
Chosen methods.....	19
One-on-one dialogue in Appreciative Inquiry (AI) style	19
Autoethnography	21
Focus group and dialogic conversation	22
Narrative inquiry and analysis	22
Metaphor	24
Ethical considerations	25
Methods used to increase credibility, generativity and utility	26
Triangulation.....	27
Member checking	27
Reflexivity	27
Limitations and delimitations	28
Relationships and demographics	28
Inquiry topic and design	29
The original design	30
The uniqueness of the women’s voices.....	30
More unfolding and consideration of a metaphor	31
Diagram of the design.....	31
Introduction to the co-researchers	33
Heather	33
Sally	33
Beth	33
Linda	34
Kolean.....	34
Fran	34
Introduction to the supporters of those in transition	35
Marcia.....	35
George	35
Tony	35

Barb	36
Background.....	36
The great recession	36
The identity of work.....	37
Toll on older workers	38
Differences for women	39
Impact of transition.....	39
Adding in the age factor	40
From “fixing” to “reframing”	41
Narrative Analysis of One-on-One Dialogues.....	41
Feelings following layoff.....	41
Feelings about new career opportunities	44
Support systems	46
Networking.....	47
Inner power and resilience.....	49
Changes in values	51
Changes in relationships.....	53
Changes in finances	54
Priorities and challenges of being unemployed and over 50	55
Feeling ageism.....	57
Renewed energy	59
Unique for women.....	60
Narrative Analysis of the Focus Group	61
Analysis.....	61
Findings.....	67
Need for comfort and connection	68
Increased rate of change and resilience.....	69
Maturation and a new way of relating.....	70
New trends and movement	71
Conclusions and Recommendations	71
Reflections on the journey	72
Broadening the discourse around transition and work.....	73
Expanding inquiry around workforce diversity	73
A sense of urgency.....	74
Appendix I.....	76
Information and Consent Form.....	76
Appendix II	78
Appreciative Inquiry: Dialogue-Initiating Questions.....	78
Appendix III.....	81
Focus Group: The Art of Focused Conversation.....	81
References.....	82